★ MEMORY VERSE — COPY BY HAND

This is part of the Gospel reading you heard at church on Sunday — the moment the man born blind saw Christ for the first time and confessed Him as Lord. Copy the verse below twice in your best handwriting.

Jesus said to him, "You have seen Him, and it is He who is talking with you." He said, "Lord, I believe!" And he worshiped Him. — John 9:37–38

Draw a line from each word on the left to its meaning on the right.

BISHOP	•	• A branch of Christianity that separated from an older church.

- One lower branch, close to the trunk — write "Roman Catholic Church (1054)"
- One higher branch, further out from the trunk — write "Protestant Churches (from 1517)"
- Off the Protestant branch, draw three smaller branches and label each with a Protestant denomination you have heard of (examples: Baptist, Methodist, Lutheran, Pentecostal, Anglican).

✦ REFLECTION — WRITE 3 TO 5 SENTENCES

The lesson said: you are not switching teams — you are coming home. Think about your life so far — the prayers you've prayed, the Bibles you've read, the people who first taught you about Jesus. Write 3 to 5 sentences about what "coming home" means for you, and what you want to thank God for from your past. It's okay if it's just one or two sentences. It's okay if it's hard to put into words.
