

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: CHRIST TRULY PRESENT

SESSION 00.7 HANDOUT

NAME _____ DATE _____

♦ MEMORY VERSE — COPY BY HAND

These are the words of Christ Himself in the Gospel of John. Many of His disciples walked away when they heard this — they could not accept it. The Apostles stayed. The Orthodox Church has believed it ever since. Copy the verse below twice in your best handwriting.

For My flesh is real food, and My blood is real drink. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. — John 6:55–56

♦ VOCABULARY — MATCH EACH WORD TO ITS MEANING

Draw a line from each word on the left to its meaning on the right.

EUCCHARIST	•	• Greek for bread set aside — the small piece of blessed bread (not consecrated) you take after the chalice. A sign of fellowship in the Church.
REAL PRESENCE	•	• The cup that holds the consecrated wine — the Blood of Christ. Father Nick carries it through the Holy Doors at the moment of Communion.
CHALICE	•	• Greek for thanksgiving — the central Sacrament of the Orthodox Church, the reason the Liturgy exists.
ANTIDORON	•	• The Orthodox teaching that Christ is truly present in the bread and wine — not as a symbol or memorial, but truly the Body and Blood of the Lord.

♦ SEQUENCE — APPROACHING THE CHALICE

Every Sunday for the rest of your life, you will approach the chalice in this exact order. Number these from 1 to 6 in the boxes below.

- ☐ Take a small piece of bread (antidoron) from the deacon's basket.
- ☐ Cross your arms over your chest, right over left.
- ☐ Walk forward in the line when the choir sings With fear of God, with faith and love, draw near.
- ☐ Tell Father Nick your name quietly: Nolan.
- ☐ Receive the Body and Blood of Christ on the spoon. Don't bite the spoon.
- ☐ Step to the side. Be still for a moment. Then return to your place.

♦ SKETCH — THE CHALICE AND THE CROSSED ARMS

Draw two pictures in the boxes below.

THE CHALICE

Father Nick holds the chalice through the Holy Doors. Inside is the Body and Blood of Christ.

HOW YOU APPROACH IT

You stand before the chalice with your arms folded over your chest — right hand over left — pressed to your heart.

✦ REFLECTION — WRITE 3 TO 5 SENTENCES

The lesson said receiving the Eucharist is the most sacred thing you will ever do — and that most Sundays it will not feel dramatic. Both true. Write 3 to 5 sentences about your first Communion last Sunday (or the Sunday before). What do you remember most? Did it feel like the most sacred thing you have ever done — or did it feel ordinary, or somewhere in between? All of those are honest. The truth of what you received does not depend on how it felt.
